An affluent catchment with a growing local economy

- Huntingdon is a rapidly expanding historic market town sitting between the internationally renowned innovation hub of Cambridge, and the eco-cluster of Peterborough.

- The 100,000 sq ft pedestrianised Chequers Shopping Centre provides the retail gateway between the traditional High Street in Huntingdon, and St Germain Walk.

WELL CONNECTED Huntingdon is superbly located situated on the transport spine of the country. It lies on a key north-south, east-west axis of road and rail links, including the A1(M), A14, M11 and East Coast Mainline, giving easy access to London, Cambridge, the Midlands, and the North.

REGENERATION

The development of a 60,000 sq ft extension to Chequers Shopping Centre – along with the build of a major new multi-storey car park – has transformed the town centre of Huntingdon.

New anchor tenants for the town include M&S Food Hall, Next and TK Maxx, with 700 car park spaces adjacent to the centre.
